

Moranbah and Nebo news

Concert a rocking success

ALAINA EARL

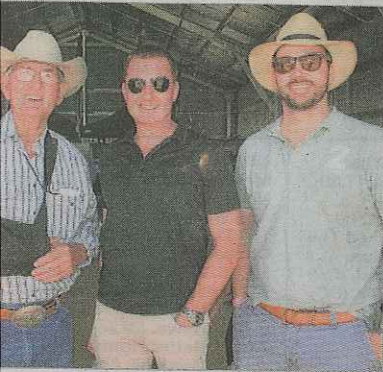

The Hornery Group can't head up high with their first annual 4U2LOC Concert being hailed as a roaring success. More than 1500 people made their way out to the event complex on Highway Station Rd, Moranbah, on September 14 for a full day of great music, great food, fantastic children's entertainment and to help contribute to two worthy causes, RACQ Rescue and Royal Brisbane Women's Hospital Foundation.

Moranbah's Hornery group are no strangers to meeting huge fundraising goals, and this event will be no different, with an expected $30,000 each to go to the respective charities.

"We are thrilled the first annual 4U2 concert was such a success and everyone had a great time," spokeswoman Diana Smith said. The main event for the festival was Shannon Noll, supported by 80's rockers, The Choirboys.

Hornery, Daniel Matthews and Joshua are enjoying the shade of the bar.

Model Sheridan Fisher with DJ Dave Peters acting as auctioneer, raised more than $1300.

BUCKET LOADS OF FUNDS: Nienke Berghuis, Lauren Mcguire and Jessica and Eric Blackburn have some fun at the concert.

PHOTOS: ALAINA EARL

